Located in the heart of residential Knightsbridge, within walking distance of Harrods, Harvey Nichols and Hyde Park.

Rooms and Suites

- 214 bedrooms including 65 suites individually decorated by some of the world's foremost interior designers.

- The Berkeley also features three individually designed signature conservatory suites with large roof terraces and conservatories as well as touches unique to each suite such as saunas and David Linley furnishings.

Restaurants and Bar

- Marcus Wareing at The Berkeley – The highly acclaimed restaurant from Michelin star chef Marcus Wareing is designed by David Collins. There is also an intimate private room and a chef's table for guests to watch the action of the kitchen.

- Boxwood – Gordon Ramsay's Boxwood Café is his take on the upscale New York café scene. Los Angeles designer Barbara Barry has created a relaxing, sophisticated environment in greens, browns and delicate tea-leaf paper:

- The Caramel Room – The name reflects the design by New York designer Alexandra Champalimaud. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are all served here. Prêt-à-Portea is the legendary fashionistas' afternoon tea held every day in The Caramel Room from 1pm to 6pm. All the cakes and fancies in the tea are inspired by the latest fashion season's collections which change twice a year.

- The Blue Bar – designed by David Collins. Favourite cocktails in The Blue Bar are the signature Berkeley Champagne Cocktail and the sublime Ginger Cosmopolitan.

Conference, Meetings and Private Dining Rooms

There are six private, air-conditioned and individually decorated rooms for all kinds of occasions including cocktail parties, private dining, receptions and meetings, for as few as six to as many as four hundred guests.
