CHAMPAGNE

LAURENT-PERRIER

Laurent-Perrier was established in 1812. The house remains under the direction of the De Nonancourt family to this day. Laurent-Perrier pioneered the production of Ultra Brut champagne and set the benchmark for Rosé Champagne using the Saignée method. Awarded with the Prince of Wales's Royal Warrant and throughout the range, produces elegant champagnes.

BOLLINGER

The Bollinger vineyard covers 179 hectares, most of which are classified Grand or Premier cru. Pinot Noir predominates, a demanding grape variety with an intense character which forms the backbone of the Bollinger style. Continuity of style is ensured by an exceptional collection of over 800,000 reserve magnums, making Bollinger the only champagne House with such a wide and precise palette of aromas for their blends. As a guarantee of supreme quality, the best crus are vinified in wood thanks to a stock of 4,000 small, aged casks.

DOM PÉRIGNON

Dom Pérignon's reputation needs no introduction: it is arguably one of the most prestigious brands of fine Champagne in the industry. Created and named after Pierre Pérignon, the 17th-century Benedictine monk who worked in the cellars of the Benedictine Abbey of Hautvillers, To this day, Dom Pérignon still enjoys the same respect for its vintage varieties, thanks to its unique experimentation of blending and fine-tuning both white Chardonnay and red Pinot Noir grapes
